

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
About the editor	viii
About the contributors	ix
Introduction by Susan Nikakis	1
1. Who are these gifted students? Susan Nikakis	11
2. Models of differentiation and how to use them Susan Nikakis	33
3. What else is available for gifted secondary students? Mark Smith	59

4. Re/engaging and developing creatively gifted thinkers in mixed ability classrooms Amy Horneman	74
5. Providing school transitions for gifted and talented students Carmel Meehan	97
6. Programs and programming in secondary schools Geraldine Nicholas	114
7. Curriculum differentiation for gifted students in secondary science classes Christine Ireland	131
8. Differentiating learning with STEM education inquiry projects Part 1 - Theory Shelley Waldon	144
9. Differentiating learning with STEM education inquiry projects Part 2 - Practice Shelley Waldon	160
10. Attending to the needs of the emotionally gifted student Arrigo Dorissa	182
11. Student voice and comments from students Susan Nikakis	194