

CHAPTER 3:

BOHEMIAN GROVE

THE CONSPIRACY

Many Illuminati members are said to meet once a year in July. They meet in a private place in Monte Rio, California. Many of the most powerful men in the world are there. These include presidents, actors, writers, singers, and businessmen. Clint Eastwood, Mark Twain, President Richard Nixon, and President Ronald Reagan all have attended. The meeting is very secretive. No outsiders are allowed. Women aren't allowed, either.

Video footage of Bohemian Grove has been leaked. The videos show the members in robes and hoods. They gather around a huge owl statue. They even chant together. Is Bohemian Grove an Illuminati gathering?

The owl is another symbol of the Illuminati.
