

AND THE VICTOR IS . . .

*What are their next moves?
Who do you think would win?*

Yakuza could win if:

- They cut off the mafia's connections. There are more mafia than Yakuza members. The United States is a lot bigger than Japan. The mafia is connected around the world. Yakuza is mainly in Asia, the United States, and Canada.
- They cut off the mafia's money. The Mafia makes a lot more money. Without it, they can't buy more weapons. They can't bribe more people.

Mafia could win if:

- They break apart the Yakuza clans. Clans are families. Since Japan is small, Yakuza gangs are closer. They can work together faster and better.
- They stay away from Japan. Separate the Yakuza from their resources.

Both Yakuza and the mafia make political connections.
