

Nonverbal Communication & Gestures

1

You can communicate without using words. You can send messages to people by using your eyes, your face, your body, and your posture.

- What is this woman saying?
- How do you know she is saying that?
- Show me with your own body how to say, "Pew. That stinks!"

You can communicate without using words. You can send messages to people by using your eyes, your face, your body, and your posture.

- What is this boy saying?
- How do you know he is saying that?
- Show me with your own body how to say, "I forgot!"

You can communicate without using words. You can send messages to people by using your eyes, your face, your body, and your posture.

- What is this woman saying?
- How do you know she is saying that?
- Show me with your own body how to say, "I don't know."