

First, Viv asked Mum. "When I was young, I had a passion for flowers and now I am a florist," said Mum, snipping the flowers.

When Toad and Newt were little,
they were cute, little tadpoles.
They used to swim together in the huge pond.

Shep was huge. He was a gentle giant. Little children would ride on his back. In the park, he was a legend!

In the winter, he sat by a glowing fire with a cup of tea and a plate of ginger biscuits. He read a magazine about geraniums.

Tracy and Lucy decided to make some dresses for their dolls. They got the scissors and cut up the curtains.

"Jack, you put the alien suit on!" ordered Viv. Soon they were having epic battles with lots of collisions and explosions.