

Green Man must be called.

They enter the tunnel. It's dark. They can't see anything. They wait. Nothing happens. The boy beeps his horn. He does this twice. They yell, "Charlie No-Face!" Then, they see something. They see a blurry light. The light gets closer. It gets greener. They see a shadow. The teens see a man. They scream.

Green Man's face is deformed. His nose, mouth, and eyes are melted together. He has a hole in his cheek. The hole has teeth. Green Man's nose is a hole in his skin. His eyes are covered over. They look like two puffy areas of skin. They twitch. It looks like he's blinking.
